Pass The Prize Game

Prepare a guest prize. This can be anything from a set of candles to a spa kit to a nice journal and pen. It doesn't have to be fancy!

When game time at your baby shower begins, have your guests sit in chairs arranged in a circle. Give the prize to the guest of honor (the mother-to-be) and start reading the poem, one stanza at a time. Your guests will have to pass the prize according to the instructions that you give. Only begin the next stanza when the gift has been passed to whomever is highlighted in the previous one.

Have fun!
